[REDACTED] He is also a key figure in the recruitment of personnel, one of the pressing duties of the Branch at this stage of its development. The work and organization of the Branch is at a point where [REDACTED] absence would severely handicap our operations and slow down the work at a time when this would very adversely affect our whole program. It may appropriately be mentioned that shortage of experienced personnel is one of the acute problems affecting our work at the present time, a circumstance which renders [REDACTED] continuous presence in the Branch indispensable at this juncture.
